

HOTEL COLLINS
COVINGTON, VA.
GILBERT C. WALKER
PROP.

Friday night 11²⁵ P.M.
May 23^d -

Dearest Betty, -

I've been in the dentist's chair all right. Dr. Earmann was putting in a crown and bridge case which I've needed for a long while - He just finished it and I'm awfully glad to get it done.

Your telegram came about noon. I answered it telling you I'd go to Lynchburg tomorrow night and down the N. & W. next day, getting to Blackstone about 11³⁰ I think. I'm disappointed at not getting to see you tomorrow night. But Mr. Chapman's funeral

HOTEL COLLINS

COVINGTON, VA.

GILBERT C. WALKER
PROP.

is in the morning at 11 o'clock, and as I was one of the passengers, and closely related to his family
I didn't feel that I should leave before the funeral. They might not have understood it.
I'll see you Sunday and Monday, I hope - and come back Monday night or Tuesday - I'll miss hearing from you a lot yesterday and today, dearest, - and hope I'll have a letter in the morning - I suppose Isabel is there tonight with you - I'm awfully sorry now I didn't

HOTEL COLLINS

COVINGTON, VA.

GILBERT C. WALKER
PROP.

33

Go to see you last Saturday as it will mix our visit up some.
Ben Hooper has been in Farmville this week.
He said he thought of going down to see you but didn't.

Meet me at the train Sunday morning
if it suits. Give them goodbye - My own dearest one - I shall be wanting to see you all the way - My love and life ever -

Yours
Rascal

P.S.
Janet's letter enclosed